The Mission Inn

We are very pleased to announce our 2018 Fall Class at the beautiful and historic Mission Inn Hotel in Riverside, California. The Mission Inn is a resort in the Spanish grand tradition, an architectural landmark, with arched cathedral ceilings, courtyards, and gardens. With its own rich history, and hundreds of art pieces collected from all over the world, The Mission Inn conducts daily tours. In 1961 and 1962 Joel Goldsmith conducted Classes at The Mission Inn, and these series of lectures are chronicled in Joel's tape catalogue. Joel loved this hotel and how it transported you into an atmosphere of serenity and beauty.

Mrs. Sue Ropac will present the Classes. The subject topics are: "The Beginning, Spiritual Reality," and "Impersonalization as a Pathway," and other subject topics from the 2018 Monthly Letters. Mrs. Ropac will be available to speak with individual students briefly after each Class. There are two (one hour) Open Classes at 10:00 am and at 2:00 pm. After the 2:00 pm Class, there will be a catered refreshment table with desserts and beverages in the meeting room. The 6:00 pm evening Class is for those students enrolled in the Inner Kingdom Consciousness Course (IKC) and is open for other students to attend, as well. The subject of the evening Class will be: "Practitioner Work; "The Inner Kingdom." *Students who register for all 3 Classes receive a gift at the end of the evening.

The entire cost for the two Open Classes is $ 75.

The cost for the evening 6 pm Closed Class is $ 25.
